Let this adorable sweatshirt announce your girl's new role with super sweet embroidery "big sis" on the front. Make it a sibling pairing with an adorable "little sis" or "little bro" onesie (both of which are also offered by the brand!). This cute gifting can then foster an idea of welcoming siblinghood from the very start, where all role members are celebrated.

Crafted from 100 percent cotton and being available in four kid sizes, the juju + stitch sweatshirt as an article of clothing is for sure useful, but its designating design makes it sentimental, very personal, and a gift of thought. That's a win-win in our book-but especially for your daughter. And that's what matters most.
